

satellite radio is the only place to find the programs that i like to here and the best up to date weather reports. it should not be up to the national association of broadcasters to dictate. my wife also thinks that you need to leave xm alone.